

St Martin's Church WALSALL

May Prayer Diary 19

For those who can make it, Morning Prayer takes place throughout the week at various times (see weekly newsletter) and on a Saturday morning at 9.00am. For those who cannot make Morning Prayer, be encouraged to pray using this Morning Prayer outline on your own, remembering that sometime between 7.00am-9.30am you will not be praying alone but at the same time as other people at St Martin's. Therefore, in this way as a Church, we will be praying together. However, this Morning Prayer outline is only a guide, remember:

Pray as you can — not as you can't

Outline for Daily Prayer

A MOMENT'S QUIET	Remember, God is our Father, Jesus is Lord. The Holy Spirit is with us.
PRAISE & THANKSGIVING	Give thanks to God for Jesus and for those things we can so easily take for granted.
CONFESSION	Say sorry to God for those things that you've thought, said and done which are wrong.
BIBLE READING	Read the Bible slowly and prayerfully.
QUIET REFLECTION	Silence
PERSONAL PRAYER	Including the Prayer for today in the St Martin's Prayer Diary.
CLOSING PRAYER	Be present in all we do today, in each breath that we take, each word that we speak, each hour that we work, each hour that we rest. Lord be in all. In our dreams, hopes, successes, our disappointments, failures and fears be Lord of all. Amen.

God of Mission

Who alone brings growth to your Church,
Send your Holy Spirit to give
Vision to our planning,
Wisdom to our actions,
And power to our witness.
Help our church to grow in numbers,
In spiritual commitment to you,
And in service to our local community,
Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Wednesday 1st May

And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him. Hebrews 11:6.

Today, from our church family, we pray for Les Budding

Collect for St. Philip and St. James, Apostles

Almighty Father, whom truly to know is eternal life:

teach us to know your Son Jesus Christ as the way, the truth and the life;

that we may follow the steps of your holy apostles Philip and James, and walk steadfastly in the way that leads to your glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Today is the feast day of St. Phillip and St. James. Dear Lord, we thank you for the apostle James. We do not know much about him but we thank you for those, like James, who work without our knowledge for our wellbeing. We pray for all those who dedicate their lives to the service of others. He is also the patron saint of those who are dying. We pray for peace for all those who know they are facing death. Bring courage and hope to them and all their family as they fall asleep in our world, to awake in the arms of God. We thank you for Phillip, the evangelist and pray that we too, might be enabled to talk freely about our faith and bring people to Christ.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer

Thursday 2nd May

This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us. And if we know that he hears us—whatever we ask—we know that we have what we asked of him. 1 John 5:14-15.

Today, from our church family, we pray for Lynsey Gibson

Some countries remember the Holocaust in May. Many Jewish people today, mourn the loss of their entire family in those awful times. We pray for peace for all those affected. We pray for other groups affected, such as the Roma people. How could it happen? It started with hate. With the constant denigration of human beings because of their race and religion. Help us dear Lord to fight hate and racism and religious persecution in all places and in all ways. Help us to act and speak always with love.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Friday 3rd May

Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer. Romans 12:12.

Today, from our church family, we pray for Tia Bryon

Our charity for May is Myaware, a charity raising awareness and helping people who have Myasthenia, a distressing neuromuscular condition that causes muscle weakness. We pray dear Lord, for all people who suffer from this condition. We pray for the research being done and for the treatments, that they may be effective and lead to a cure. Thank you for all those who work so hard to find a cure and ease the pain of those who suffer from this condition. Thank you for those who raise money and organise support in different ways.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Saturday 4th May

If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land. 2 Chronicles 7:14.

Today, from our church family, we pray for Chanel Bryon

Dear Lord, on Thursday this week, local elections were held for councils in the United Kingdom. By now results should all be in and people will know whether they have been elected. We pray for all those involved in Local Government work. Grant them wisdom and sensitivity to listen to the people in their area. Help them all to work for the common good and do Your will.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Sunday 5th May

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Philippians 4:6-7.

Today, from our church family, we pray for Porsche Bryon

Collect for the Third Sunday of Easter

Risen Christ,

you filled your disciples with boldness and fresh hope:

strengthen us to proclaim your risen life

and fill us with your peace,

to the glory of God the Father. Amen

Today will be Penny and Peter Wheble's last Sunday with us here at St. Martins'. We thank them, Lord, for 25 years of faithful service. Penny, as musical director, has led us in so many wonderful events, teaching us new songs and hymns and enabling our worship in so many ways. Peter has led children's groups, served as Warden and managed our sound system. Please bless them Lord as they continue to serve you at St John's Church in Walsall Wood. Bring them your peace and love and enable them to continue their ministry and be faithful to your plans for them.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Monday 6th May

Therefore, confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective. James 5:16.

Today, from our church family, we pray for Katie Bryon

Today is a Bank Holiday, a day when families often get together to enjoy each other's company and have a break from the demands of work and school. Our reading talks about praying for each other. This can be difficult if different members of a family have different beliefs. Please Lord, help all Christian parents to effectively talk about their beliefs and enable children and other family members to hear about the wonderful, all embracing love of Jesus.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Tuesday 7th May

Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus. 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18.

Today, from our church family, we pray for Harley Bryon.

Today we thank you Lord for all those who work to keep our motorways running smoothly. Those who monitor the situation, those who repair and maintain and those who work in any way towards the safety of all motorists. We thank you for public transport; for trains and buses and trams and metro systems. Please give wisdom and strength to all who work for our good on the roads and railways.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Wednesday 8th May

Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity. Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone. Colossians 4:5-6.

Today, from our church family, we pray for Margaret Carter.

Our reading today talks about the way we act towards outsiders. Dear Lord, we thank you for those who are willing to act as Sidespersons, and Welcomers. Help them to always be a cheery face, greeting visitors and regular worshippers alike. Help us all to be sensitive to people's needs, be ready to spread the word of Your great and glorious love and enable all to worship You, dear Lord and find their own spiritual path.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Thursday 9th May

Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, because through Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit who gives life has set you free from the law of sin and death. Romans 8:1-2.

Today, from our church family, we pray for John Chambers

Thank you, dear Lord, that You do not condemn us and have set us free from sin and death, as our reading today states. Thank You for Your great mercy. Thank You, that You love us so much that You sent Your Son, Jesus, to save us. Send us Your Holy Spirit to give us the courage to truly forgive, not just say sorry and help us to share Your amazing grace with all.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Friday 10th May

"If your brother or sister sins, go and point out their fault, just between the two of you. If they listen to you, you have won them over. Matthew 18:15.

Today, from our church family, we pray for Fred Cole.

Last month many of us saw the moving story of our Lord Jesus' life, Passion and Resurrection performed by the Riding Light Company. It was entitled the Narrow Road and today our prayer is about the road we follow as Christians.

*Thy way, not mine, O Lord!
However dark it be,
Lead me by Thine own hand,
Choose out the path for me.
Smooth let it be, or rough,
It will be still the best;
Winding or straight it matters not,
It leads me to Thy rest. (Horatius Bonar)*

Lord in your mercy hear our prayer

Saturday 11th May

Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other,

just as in Christ God forgave you. Ephesians 4:32

Today, from our church family, we pray for Jackie Coles

As we remember the call to compassion from St Paul, we remember in prayer those who hold power in our local community. We ask that they be filled with a gentle understanding and appreciation of the needs of the most vulnerable members of Walsall and a genuine desire to serve their interests. We remember the work of all social and community leaders, including the service of our local councillors as they organise and discuss community needs and our MPs who represent needs of our town, county and country. We pray for all decisions which will impact the lives of our community, and for guidance for all who can influence these judgments.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Sunday 12th May

Epilogue: The Wife of Noble Character. A wife of noble character who can find? She is worth far more than rubies. Proverbs 31:10

Today, from our church family we pray for Iris Collins

Collect for the Fourth Sunday of Easter

Risen Christ,

faithful shepherd of your Father's sheep:

teach us to hear your voice

and to follow your command,

that all your people may be gathered into one flock,

to the glory of God the Father. Amen

Christian Aid week starts today. Christian Aid believes everyone is equal in the sight of God, yet we live in a world where poverty still persists, robs people of their dignity and lets injustice thrive. For over 70 years, they have been standing with the poorest working in 37 countries, with people of all faiths and none, to stand up for dignity, equality and justice. They are also there to help whenever disasters occurs such as the recent Cyclone Idai. We pray, Lord, for generous hearts and deep pockets so that envelopes distributed this week for Christian Aid can raise funds to help those in need.

Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Monday 13th May

Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised. Proverbs 31:30

Today, from our church family, we pray for Marilyn Collins

Today we pray for marriage. Firstly for all couples who are preparing for their wedding celebrations and the beginnings of the lives together as husband and wife, that they may have peace in their organising and find joy in the traditions and the festivity. We praise you Lord for each married couple working at their relationship by seeking opportunities to demonstrate their vows in the context of daily life. We thank you for the occasions where such relationships seem easy and the love clear, and we ask for your blessing of forgiveness and humility where these unions are strained or damaged. Where marriages are coming to an end through divorce or death, we pray for healing and a renewed relationship with you our God.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Tuesday 14th May

For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well. Psalm 139:13-14

Today, from our church family, we pray for Pamela Cooke

Collect for Matthias the Apostle

Almighty God,

who in the place of the traitor Judas

chose your faithful servant Matthias

to be of the number of the Twelve:

preserve your Church from false apostles

and, by the ministry of faithful pastors and teachers,

keep us steadfast in your truth;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
Amen

We pray for our members of Parliament, our Government and Prime Minister who at the time of writing were unable to agree a Brexit deal. As this impasse continues, our industries and businesses are faced with major difficulties and are unable to plan effectively. We pray Lord, that you will give our politicians the wisdom to find a solution and that those spending their time trying to improve their political position and satisfy their own egos will stop squabbling and instead move forward to a conclusion that is ultimately for the good of this country.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Wednesday 15th May

As you do not know the path of the wind, or how the body is formed in a mother's womb, so you cannot understand the work of God, the Maker of all things. Ecclesiastes 11:5

Today, from our church family, we pray for Sue Cooper

We pray for all Christians involved in missionary work, focused on sharing the Gospel message with people both in the UK as well around the world. We particularly remember the work of the Church Mission Society as they work across Africa, India and Argentina to support vulnerable members of communities by following Christ's example of service. We ask for your guidance and support for the issues that cause suffering around the world, including FGM, health care and any examples of a fractured society, such as gang culture. May the actions, donations and gifts given to support this missionary work be blessed and made fruitful by the work of the Holy Spirit.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Thursday 16th May

The LORD your God is with you, the Mighty Warrior who saves. He will take great delight in you; in his love he will no longer rebuke you, but will rejoice over you with singing." Zephaniah 3:17

Today, from our church family, we pray for Doreen Crowder

After the café today we are holding a “Souper Soup Lunch” a simple meal of soup, bread and cake, with all the money raised to be given to Christian Aid, so we pray-

“Lord, you are our Father, a loving parent who cares for me, your child. But I am one of many millions of precious, loved and valued children.

Help me to recognise the needs of my brothers and sisters – all made in the image of God.

Hallowed be your name, not my name or any other.

May your justice and truth reign on this planet which is stricken with poverty.

When I ask for your kingdom to come, I do so laying all my resources at your feet. Help me, as part of your church, to be obedient to your call to look after people in need in your name. Give us your daily bread, and help me to share abundantly the plenty that I have been blessed with. Amen.”(Christian Aid)

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Friday 17th May

Doxology: Oh, the depth of the riches of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable his judgments, and his paths beyond tracing out! Romans 11:33

Today, from our church family, we pray for Valerie Daniel

In a world of fast-paced news and the use of alternative truths, we remember that you are the God of truth, justice and righteousness. We thank you for the examples and witness of truth and accountability we find in scripture, from the Ten Commandments given to Moses and recorded in Exodus to the promise fulfilled by the incarnation of Jesus. As we spend time with our God today, may we pray for God’s truth and grace to be shared around the world as an expression of his Kingdom. We call for truth to be valued through international politics, national debate, local pressures and community disagreements. We pray that our community, our leadership and ourselves are able to share ideas without judgement, but be held to account for the choices made.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Saturday 18th May

God is not unjust; he will not forget your work and the love you have shown him as you have helped his people and continue to help them. Hebrews 6:10

Today, from our church family, we pray for Chris Davidson

We lift before you the struggle of all who suffer the pressure of living with a limited or insecure income, asking for your calming spirit to comfort those who feel the stress and anxiety of this insecurity. We consider those who have a limited or delayed benefit or pension, those who are struggling to find consistent work paying a living wage, and any who are suffering from conditions or ill-health which may limit their prospects. We remember all those who suffer the pressure and fear of not being able to live, without the anxiety of prioritising their and their families' basic needs. We pray for those who work to provide employment opportunities, and for all who support those joining or re-entering the workforce.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Sunday 19th May

But the wisdom that comes from heaven is first of all pure; then peace loving, considerate, submissive, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial and sincere. Peacemakers who sow in peace reap a harvest of righteousness. James 3:17-18

Today, from our church family, we pray for Sue Davidson

Collect for the Fifth Sunday of Easter

Risen Christ,

your wounds declare your love for the world and the wonder of your risen life:

give us compassion and courage to risk ourselves for those we serve,

to the glory of God the Father. Amen

With the news that so many shops and businesses are going into administration or closing each month, we pray for those who have lost or face losing jobs and for their families as they worry about the future. We also pray that support will be given in the short term and help to find new positions

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Monday 20th May

May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you the same attitude of mind toward each other that Christ Jesus had, so that with one mind and one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Romans 15:5-6

Today, from our church family, we pray for Robert Davidson

We thank you for the tradition and work of the uniformed groups of Rainbows, Brownies, Cubs, Guides and Scouts groups nationwide and around the world. We thank you for the leaders who volunteer to share their time, knowledge and skill with young people and for all who support the activities in weekly meeting, camps, challenges and trips which are provided to those involved. We remember the uniformed groups in our community of St Martin's - the Rainbows, Brownies and Guides, praying for the ongoing fundraising efforts to equip the Guide group with resources for camping this summer. We pray for your blessing on all young people in the care of these groups.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Tuesday 21st May

A Church Divided Over Leaders. I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree with one another in what you say and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfectly united in mind and thought. 1 Corinthians 1:10

Today, from our church family, we pray for Rosie Davidson

As we move through spring, we thank you for the beauty of our created world, and look for opportunities to spend time with our God just as Adam and Eve walked with God in the Garden of Eden. For the bulbs we have seen growing, the flowers we have witnessed blooming and the blossom we have smelt, we praise you. We thank you for the opportunity of the community garden at St Martin's, and for all the work organising the project and preparing the ground for planting. We ask that working on this site will be a blessing for all involved and provide an opportunity for outreach into the immediate community. We thank you for the created world, and ask for your blessing on the efforts to work in your image and create a place of beauty and community.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Wednesday 22nd May

You, my brothers and sisters, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the flesh; rather, serve one another humbly in love. Galatians 5:13

Today, from our church family, we pray for Marcus Davis

GCSE and A levels exams have already begun and continue into mid-June so today we pray for those sitting these exams. Some are confident but others become very stressed in exam situations and we pray that each student will be able to fully show their knowledge and ability. We also pray that they will be able to continue to revise effectively, despite the many distractions in their lives.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer

Thursday 23rd May

Each of us should please our neighbours for their good, to build them up. Romans 15:2

Today, from our church family, we pray for Katrina Healey-Davis

On Saturday our Outreach teams will again be out on the streets in Park Hall from 11.30 to 1pm sharing a message of love and kindness and praying for all they encounter. Loving Lord, we give thanks for Chris and the rest of the group involved and pray for Your support, protection and guidance as they undertake this important work and reach out to the local community.

*“Loving God, I offer you today,
my thoughts, words and actions.
Help me to heed the promptings of your Spirit,
to recognize your Son in those I encounter,
and to be a witness for your kingdom.
Help me to share your healing touch,
your words of encouragement,
your smile of friendship,
your helping hand”.* (The Community of St Chad)
Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer

Friday 24th May

Be devoted to one another in love. Honour one another above yourselves. Romans 12:10

Today, from our church family, we pray for Antonia Davis

Collect for today dedicated to John and Charles Wesley Evangelists and Hymn writers

*God of mercy,
who inspired John and Charles Wesley with zeal for your gospel:
grant to all people boldness to proclaim your word
and a heart ever to rejoice in singing your praises;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit. Amen*

Lord we pray that we can use the following words of John Wesley to inspire our daily lives - “Do all the good you can, by all the means you can, in all the ways you can, in all the places you can, at all the times you can, to all the people you can, as long as ever you can.”
Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer

Saturday 25th May

My dear brothers and sisters, take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry, James 1:19

Today, from our church family, we pray for Roberta Davis

Our prayers for our town of Walsall focus today on the disabled and elderly with carers or in care and residential homes. Compassionate Father, we pray that our disabled, vulnerable and elderly can receive a high standard of care. We pray that care in nursing and residential homes is such that their residents feel valued and enjoy varied and stimulating experiences. That those at home receive a good, respectful and appropriate level of care that is relevant to their age and level of disability and enables them to enjoy their lives. We pray for those whose vulnerable loved ones need or receive care, for all family members who help as carers and for support to alleviate the anxiety, pressures and responsibilities that they experience.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer

Sunday 26th May Rogation Sunday

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him. John 3:17

Today, from our church family, we pray for Georgina Davis

As well as being the sixth Sunday of Easter, today is also designated Rogation Sunday. This is the day when the Church has traditionally offered prayer for God's blessings on the fruits of the earth and the labours of those who produce our food. Less of us today directly derive our livelihood from the production of food, yet it is good to be reminded of our dependence upon those who do and our responsibility for the environment.

It was also a time when members of the church and clergy walked the boundary of the parish and prayed for its protection in the forthcoming year as some of us may remember doing 9 years ago.

A prayer for Rogationtide:

Remember, Lord, your mercy and loving-kindness towards us.

Bless this good earth, and make it fruitful.

Bless our labour, and give us all things needed for our daily lives.

Bless the homes of our parish and all who live within them.

Bless our common life and our care for our neighbour.

Hear us, good Lord. Amen.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer

Monday 27th May

However, I consider my life worth nothing to me; my only aim is to finish the race and complete the task the Lord Jesus has given me—the task of testifying to the good news of God's grace. Acts 20:24

Today, from our church family, we pray for Jossie Devey

Today on this Spring Bank Holiday and Half Term week, we pray for the safety of all those who are travelling by road, sea or air. Thank you Lord for another time to relax and spend time with our friends and families. We pray for those for whom holidays or outings are not possible due to the limitations of finance, age or ill health. We also continue to pray for those who will be spending time this week in exam revision.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer

Tuesday 28th May

Rejoice with those who rejoice; mourn with those who mourn. Romans 12:15

Today, from our church family, we pray for Dorothy Doody

Today we pray for those whose help we need with the maintenance and repair of our homes and vehicles. For electricians, plumbers, builders, mechanics, decorators and many more. We give thanks for the honest, skilful people we encounter and pray for the success of their local businesses in this current economic climate. Occasionally we hear about dishonest tradesmen and we pray that they will be exposed and dealt with effectively to ensure that people, especially the elderly and vulnerable, are not exploited.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer

Wednesday 29th May

But from everlasting to everlasting the Lord's love is with those who fear him, and his righteousness with their children's children—

with those who keep his covenant and remember to obey his precepts. Psalm 103:17-18

Today, from our church family, we pray for John Duder

Today is the International day of United Nations Peacekeepers. We pray that the UN can endeavour to foster peace and security, uphold the rights and freedoms of every citizen of our world and try to hold to account nations amongst its 192 member states who do not respect this. Loving Lord, be with all in our world who suffer today because of conflict and unrest and guide these nations to peaceful solutions for the good of their peoples, with leaders who care about them before themselves.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer

Thursday 30th May

In God, whose word I praise—in God I trust and am not afraid.

What can mere mortals do to me? Psalm 56:4

Today, from our church family, we pray for Janet Duder

Collect for Ascension Day

*Grant, we pray, almighty God, that as we believe your only-begotten Son our Lord Jesus Christ to have ascended into the heavens,
so we in heart and mind may also ascend and with him continually dwell;
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.*

On this important day in our church calendar we pray the for three aims of our Mission Action Plan as outlined by Jenny in the ACM; further outreach, the establishment of a youth club and engaging in dialogue with our neighbours of different faiths. In God we trust and are not afraid, as the psalmist in today's text says, so we pray Heavenly Father for your guidance and support as we endeavour to move forward with these aims. May we make St Martins a real beacon shining in the local community.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer

Friday 31st May

For the Lord himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the Lord forever. 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17

Today, from our church family, we pray for Liz Dunthorne

Collect for the visit of the Blessed Virgin Mary to Elizabeth Mighty God,

*by whose grace Elizabeth rejoiced with Mary and greeted her as the mother of the Lord:
look with favour on your lowly servants
that, with Mary, we may magnify your holy name and rejoice to acclaim her Son our Saviour,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen*

The churches and cathedrals where we worship are special places where people come together in faith. Some are also places of great art and architecture which people of different faiths and none visit, perhaps finding while there a link with spirituality, so sadly and with compassion we pray for the people of Paris who last month saw the considerable destruction of Notre Dame by fire. We think about the many faithful who have worshipped there over the past seven centuries and pray that it will be rebuilt to inspire people from many nations in the future.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer
